

DEATH COMES TO DR. MOORMAN.

Prominent Citizen of Breckenridge County Dies Friday Night At 10:30 o'clock.

SURROUNDED BY FAMILY.

Dr. J. L. Moorman died Friday night at 10:30 o'clock. His death had been momentarily expected for several days and he was surrounded by the members of his family when he came. Dr. Moorman had been in ill health over a year suffering continuously. He gave up all dental practice some time before his final breakdown to take treatment, but his condition did not improve.

COMES BACK.

Early last fall Dr. and Mrs. Moorman moved their family to Louisville and soon after Christmas when he realized that he could not live much longer, he asked to come back home to await death. Mrs. Moorman came with him and they stayed at the home of his sister, Mrs. Owen, until arrangements could be made to take them to their property on River Front in the East End. Every Sunday after they came here his children would come from Louisville to be with him and his mother, and last Sunday when he seemed to be sinking, his daughters, Misses Kate and Adeline, son, Frank, remained. His other children, Mrs. Joe Harpole and Jack Moorman, were called from Louisville Thursday. Jesse Moorman was here, having been nursing his father from the beginning of his illness.

A CHRISTIAN.

Dr. Moorman had been an lifelong member of the Christian church for fifteen years and the town knows that he was a Christian in his home, in his church and in his business and social life. He was a devoted father, a faithful church worker, paid his debts and was a true friend.

BORN IN BRECKENRIDGE.

Dr. Moorman was born in Breckenridge county at the Moorman home and was sixty-two years of age in January, 1907. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Moorman and was raised by his mother, Mrs. Mary M. Moorman.

THE FUNERAL.

The funeral was held from the Baptist church at 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The services were conducted by the Rev. James Lewis and concluded at the Cloverport cemetery where the interment took place. The pallbearers were: Judge Wm. C. Owen, Mr. Alvin Foster, Henry Payne, James Pritch and Thomas Thomas. The floral tributes were beautiful.

Tickling or dry coughs will quickly be won when using Dr. J. C. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is thoroughly a miss that Dr. Shoop tells mothers to use nothing else even for very young children. This wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung healing mountain shrub give the cure its power. It calms the cough and heals the sensitive bronchial membrane. No matter how long standing, nothing harsh used to irritate or suppress. Demand Dr. Shoop's. It is no other. All dealers.

Barnett Withdraws Resignation.

President C. M. Barnett of the Board of Directors of the State Society of Directors, recently tendered his resignation as such, at the solicitation of the Board of Directors, other than the one who was part of the membership, withdrew same and has agreed to continue at the head of the great organization. He went to Indianapolis Monday to attend the regular meeting of the Board of Directors and the matter of his resignation would have been considered at the meeting had he not on the closing of the board withdrew it. Had Mr. Barnett's resignation been accepted the Vice President would have succeeded to the position and served the time out. The fact that the Board of Directors, which is composed of the State Presidents, urged Barnett to remain at the head of the organization is pretty good evidence that dissatisfaction is a great measure dying out. Hartford Republican.

A Beneficial Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Curtis have returned home from their trip West, both very much improved in health. Mr. Curtis is the Henderson Route agent at Glendale—a more faithful and truer man to his work and employee never handled a piece of freight. Always at his post, kind, courteous and accommodating, he has made many friends for his road and himself. Mrs. Curtis has been agent at Glendale for eighteen years, and this is the first time she was ever checked out. A pretty good record.

Mr. Sebastian Dead.

Mrs. A. R. Fisher and Mrs. Mary Raitt received a telegram Monday morning announcing the death of their brother, Wm. Sebastian. Mr. Sebastian was a retired merchant and planter of Shreveport, La. He was survived by his wife, two sons and three daughters. His many friends here very pleasantly remember his last visit to this city which was a year ago this January.

Lent Begins.

Services will be held at the St. Rose Catholic church Ash Wednesday, March 4 at 8:30 a. m. which is the beginning of Lent.

STITH-PENICK

QUIETLY SET A TRAP

How the Republicans Brought About the Election of Bradley For Senator.

DEMOCRATS CAUGHT NAPPING

The Latter Were Not Looking for Things to Take the Turn They Did on That Eventful Friday and Were Taken Unawares.

Frankfort, Ky., March 3.—The senatorial race came to an unexpected close last Friday, when the four Democrats, Charlton, McNutt and Mueller of Louisville and Lillard of Boyle, who have persistently refused to vote for Beckham, voted for Bradley and elected him. The finish was an exciting one, as the Republicans quietly set a trap for the Democrats and caught them napping. It takes seventy votes to make a quorum of the joint assembly, and if all the Democrats but those who voted for Bradley had remained to set apart a fund of $25,000 which would not have been a quorum, as several Republicans were out of the city. The Democrats knew this, but as the absent Republicans and thought they would be paid, they thought it would not make any difference, and that the day's ballot would be just like the others that preceded it. When the roll call began the Democrats voted for Beckham and the Republicans for Bradley. When Charlton's name was called he voted for Wheeler Campbell as usual, but after five or six Democrats had voted for Beckham, which insured a quorum, he arose and changed his vote to Bradley. The Democrats realized then that they were in the meshes of the trap, and as the roll call proceeded there was much surprised and hurried whispering concerning what the Democrats would do. They might choose, but they could not undo what they had done. The roll call proceeded and the Democrats voted for Beckham and the Republicans for Bradley. ## A CLEVER RUSE.

Remember This When You Next Purchase Costly Jewels.

How Mr. Morgan made his millions would take volumes to relate, but an amusing little artifice by means of which he succeeded in saving $1,000 can be told within the brief space of a couple of paragraphs.

Some years ago a jewelry firm in New York sent the diamond a fine pearl, offering it to him for $5,000. This Mr. Morgan decided to purchase, and two checks were made out—one for $5,000 and the other for $1,000. He then removed the pearl from its box and, having substituted for it the $5,000 check, revealed the package.

Mr. Morgan's clerk was next dispatched to the jeweler's with the sealed box and a note containing the check for $4,000, stating that Mr. Morgan would be pleased to purchase the pearl if they would be satisfied with the check. The unsuspecting jeweler—in ignorance, of course, of what the sealed package now contained—closed with the astute financier's offer. And the box in which the $5,000 check serenely reposed was returned to Mr. Morgan unopened.—Pearson's

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol for Dyspepsia: "E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs.; in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and I was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity will be benefited. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904. Sold by all druggists.

A Curious Grace.

The most curious form, or, rather, expression, of grace after meat which I have ever come across was that customary at Clifford's inn, one of the vanished inns of chancery. The society consisted of two distinct bodies, the principal and rules and the Kentish mess, each body having its own table. At the conclusion of the dinner the chairman of the Kentish mess, first bowing to the principal of the inn, took from the hands of the servant some small rolls or loaves of bread and, without saying a word, dashed them several times on the table, after which they were taken away. Solemn silence reigned only by the thanks prevailed during this curious substitute for a verbal grace.—Cor. London Chronicle.

Good For Everybody.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, in the Delbert Building San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric Bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter; as a blood-purifier it is unequalled. 50c at Severs' Drug Co.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Bank Deposits.
"It's odd the different sources of bank deposits," remarked a bank official. "For example," he said, "we receive thousands of dollars every year from Cleveland men in the army and navy. The average deposit is $20 or more from some of the officers."

"Most of this is sent to us direct by the paymaster of the army or navy, as the case may be. Just now we are getting a lot of money from men in the navy on this cruise to the Pacific. The paymaster makes out a list of the various deposits and sends along a check to cover the total amount. Thus the men draw their pay and deposit it without ever seeing it. Their pass-books in a great many cases are left right here."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Best Healer in the World.

Rev. F. Starbird, of East Raymond, Maine, says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for several years, on my old army wound, and other obstinate sores, and find it the best healer in the world. I use it too with great success in my veterinary business." Price 25c at Severs' Drug Co.

This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, lagrippe, asthma, bronchitis and all other lung troubles, is sold under guarantee at Severs' Drug Co. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Men's Maids.

"Men's maids, yes," said an employment agent. "There are more of them than of men's men or valets. Visit the fashionable hotels of Baltimore, Florida, the Riviera, Egypt, and as you pass open bedroom doors of a morning or an afternoon what do you see? Maids changing the studs in evening shirts, pressing trousers with patent alcohol irons, brushing coats and putting fresh laces in boots. The average well-to-do couple the couple that can afford the best winter and summer resorts—travel with a maid, but not with a maid and a valet, for, after all, a valet is very expensive, and his duties seem only a few hours a day, and a maid can get through all of them just as well as not. So the average lady maid is a man's maid as well as the wife's valet in the household. She does her better duties. They are, you see, simple and easy, and they draw forth the most generous that."—New York Press.

Reynard the Fox.

Reynard, or, as it is more usually written, Reynard is the name given to the fox in a famous French epic of the thirteenth century called Reynard the Fox. The book is really a satire on the state of France in the middle ages, the different animals each of which are given a special untypifying different institutions. Thus Reynard the Fox stands for the church, Isengrim the Wolf for the barons and Noble the Lion for the emperor. Other characters are Tibert the Cat and Bruin the Bear. Both in the last named case and that of Reynard the person name given by the author has passed into common speech.

The Queen Bumblebee.

The length of life of a queen bumblebee is probably little more than a year at most. Here is one reason for this belief. She hatches among the late broods of summer and soon after leaves the nest, leading a vagabond existence, night and day, among the autumn flowers. The winter she passes in an earthy lair dug by herself and unaided establishes a colony in the spring. These crowded periods of fall and spring require the daily use of her frail wings in the field at least four months. Now, we know that the wings of the worker bumblebee wear out in less than half that time; also that the old queens who take to the field after the nest breaks up in August frequently have tattered wings and soon disappear. Nature does not supply insects with new wing feathers. It supplies birds with new wing feathers. So the loss of the power of flight at this season of the year to the queen bumblebee means the loss of life.

Prof. H. A. Howell, of Savannah, Cuba, recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof. H. A. Howell, of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3, our baby was taken sick with a cold and cough. The next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in my arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I gave him my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and in less than three days later, he has fully recovered. Under the circumstances I would not hesitate a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by Severs' Drug Co.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than in other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces for any case it fails to cure, send for circulars and testimonials. Address: J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio. # CAUGHT BY THE GRIP-- RELEASED BY PE-RU-NA.

La Grippe Is Epidemic Catarrh.

THE disease now known as 'grip' used to be called influenza. It very closely resembles a cold, but is more serious in its hold upon the system and produces more profound disturbances.

Grip is in reality epidemic catarrh. When it once begins it spreads over the country very rapidly.

People do not catch the grip from each other, but each one catches it from the atmosphere.

"Most Effective Medicine Ever Tried for La Grippe."

Robt. L. Madison, A. M., Principal of Cullowee High School, Painter, N. C., is chairman of the Jackson County Board of Education.

He is a writer of occasional verse and has contributed to a number of leading papers and magazines, religious, educational and secular.

In speaking of Peru, Mr. Madison says: "I am hardly ever without Peru in my home. It is the most effective medicine that I have ever tried for la grippe."

"It also cured my wife of nasal catarrh. Her condition at one time was such that she could not at night breathe through her nostrils."

"In consequence, an inflamed condition of the throat was brought about, getting worse and worse and yielding to no remedy until Peru was tried."

Healthy Mucous Membranes. Those who are fortunate enough to have perfectly healthy mucous membranes ordinarily do not catch the grip.

The mucous membranes lining the nose, throat and lungs, when in a normal state, are an effective barrier against the invasion of grip.

But, if there happens to be the slightest catarrhal derangement of the mucous membranes, then the victim becomes an easier prey to the grip.

This in part explains why some people get the grip, while others do not. The rational thing to do is to keep the system free from catarrh. In attempting to do this most people have found Peru to be invaluable.

Systemic Catarrh, the Result of La Grippe. Pe-ru-na Reaches Credit for Present Good Health.

Mrs. Jennie W. Gilmore, Box 44, White Oak, Ind. Ter., formerly Housekeeper for Indiana Reformatory School for Boys, writes:

"Six years ago I had la grippe, which was followed by systemic catarrh. The only thing I used was Peru and Maudslui, and I have been in better health the last three years than for years before."

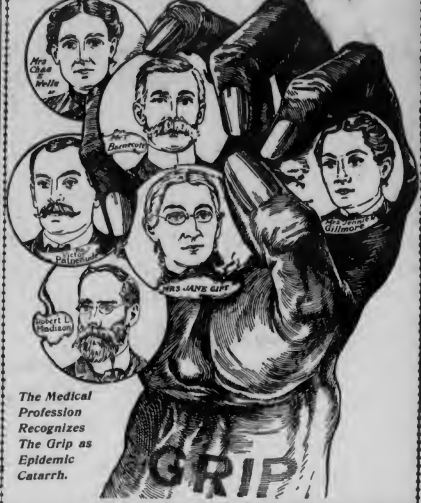

I give Peru all the credit for my good health."

Mr. and Mrs. George Brinkell and children left Sunday for Louisville to visit relatives.

Miss Mary Bassett is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. K. A. Shellman.

School closed here Friday. Prof. Payne left on the evening train for Bowling Green to take up a few studies. Mr. Payne doesn't believe in losing any time. He has taught a fine school at this place.

Is there no way to stop this drinking in our town or rather the whiskey that is being shipped in here? The vicious cries and awful language and conduct

The Medical Profession Recognizes The Grip as Epidemic Catarrh.

During an epidemic of grip Peru should be used. The doses recommended on the bottle are sufficient.

After the grip has once been acquired, Dr. Hartman recommends the use of Peru in teaspoonful doses every hour during the acute stage, after which the directions on the bottle should be followed.

Experience has shown that the people who use Peru as a remedy for grip generally recover sooner and are less liable to the distressing and long-continued after-effects of the grip.

When Peru has not been used during the course of the grip and the patient finds himself suffering from the after-effects of this disease, a course of Peru should be resorted to.

Effects of La Grippe. Mr. Victor Patneade, 828 Madison St., Toledo, Kan., member of Knights and Ladies of Security, writes:

"Twelve years ago I had a severe attack of la grippe and I never really recovered my health and strength—had grew weaker every year, until I was unable to work."

AN EXTRA SESSION

Rumor Now Has It That Kentucky Legislators Will Be Kept at Work.

LITTLE BEING ACCOMPLISHED

Senatorial Deadlock and Tension Over Local Option Bill Have Put the Brakes on All the Normal Activities of the Present Assembly—All the "Interests" Appear to Be Fighting for Delay and the Session is Merely Dragging Along.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 25.—One would think the senatorial fight had become a stale and uninteresting subject in Frankfort by this time, but it is nearly the sole topic of conversation now, just as it was the first week in January, in every little coterie of politicians that happen together in the hotels every day and night. The dead-end still continues and the death of Representative McLaughlin of Mason county seems to have made no change in the situation, except that it now takes one less to elect than it did before McLaughlin's death. Beckham lost another vote when Representative Arnett of Covington voted for Congressman Ollie James, but as long as none of the Democrats vote for Beckham vote for Bradley, the deadlock will continue. The county unit local option bill is still hanging fire, it is still asserted that upon its fate will depend the result of the senatorial race. The legislative session will end by limitation on March 17, so that only about three weeks more re-

SENATOR CONN LINN

[President Pro Tem of the Senate] main in which to do anything. All the "interests" appear to be fighting for delay. Motions to adjourn early each day without doing any real work, are constantly adopted. As a result all the bills will be jammed together the last ten days of the session and some legislation will likely be enacted. There is some talk of an extra session being called, but it is not believed that Governor Willson will call one unless the appropriation to complete the new statehouse can be passed, and even that may not induce him to call one.

The senate has passed by a unanimous vote the Beckham bill providing a pension for indigent and disabled Con-

Rheumatism

Do you want to get rid of it? If so, take Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic. It is directed in pamphlet around bottle. In addition to the direct curative properties it has a soothing effect upon the nervous system by which the rheumatic pains are controlled, and rest and sleep assured. It has made many cures of this painful disease, some of them after years of suffering. If it will cure others why not you. If your case is complicated, write us for advice, it costs you nothing and may save you prolonged suffering.

"I was so crippled that I could scarcely walk after having my shoes on for an hour or two. I could manage to walk by suffering the pain. Then I began to take Dr. Miles' Nerve Tonic. I read and immediately bought a bottle and I continued to take six months. I have scarcely any pain and am able to walk as well as ever."

After suffering for seven years, this woman was restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read her letter.

Mrs. Sallie French, of Paucanua, Ind. Ter., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I had female troubles for seven years—I was all run-down, and so nervous I could not do anything. The doctor treated me for different troubles but did me no good. While in this condition I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am now strong and well."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, etc., and bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham. She will tell you anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat your letter confidentially and give you free. No woman ever regretted writing her, and because of her vast experience she has helped thousands. Address, Lynn, Mass.

federate veterans. The provisions of the bill are carefully guarded and no one can receive the $125 per year if he has as much as $600 worth of property, nor if he has a member of his immediate family that is able to take care of him. A board of investigation in each county is provided for, and each applicant for a pension must have his case passed on by this board favorably before he can draw the pension from the state. The bill does not conflict or interfere with the Confederate Soldiers' Home at Pewee Valley. It is believed the bill will pass the house of representatives with but little opposition, and an amendment may be adopted providing that any servant who accompanied his master while serving in the Confederate army, and who is indigent or disabled, may also be entitled to a pension. This provision was in the bill as first presented but owing to the fact that the section was not carefully drawn, it was stricken out.

Neither the senate nor house has taken any final action yet on the numerous bills to repeal the dog-tax law, but the house may pass the question this week. The state breeders are making an active fight against the repeal of the law, and a number of members have changed their views since coming here. The State Farmers' Institute, which met here last week, with an attendance of about 200 from all over the state, adopted by an almost unanimous vote a resolution calling upon the legislature not to repeal the dog tax. The advocates of the repeal, however, are vehement in their demands for the passage of the bill, and it may be pushed through yet.

There seems to be some very curious, not to say peculiar, about the Kentucky legislature, or rather some of the Kentucky legislatures. When the legislatures of other states find that something is needed by the state, they appropriate enough money to get what is needed and do it of the first class. In other words, what is worth doing is worth doing well. Not so in Kentucky, however. Ordinarily when the state of Kentucky needs something that other states readily pay $50,000 or $60,000 for, to get it first class, the legislative cheese-parers take it in hand and cut it down to $5,000 or $10,000, which results in poor building or poor service. As an example, other states expend from $75,000 to $200,000 a year to enforce their pure food laws, while Kentucky expends but $15,000, and as a consequence the fund gives out the first six months each year and nothing can be done the last six months to prosecute the violators of the pure food laws. A recent legislature appropriated a million dollars for a new, sound and substantial statehouse building has been erected but is not yet furnished. To hear some of the cheese-parers talk they want the building furnished out of a 10-cent store, and the million-dollar structure should have all its appointments in keeping with its appearance, and if a proper appropriation is made, Kentucky will have a statehouse that will be a matter of state pride. If the penurious ones get in their work, everybody will be disgusted with it and in a short time all the cheap furniture and things thrown out or worn out and another appropriation will be necessary, which means that the first inadequate appropriation will be an absolute loss.

The cheese-parers and record-makers are afraid to vote their sentiments on any of the education appropriation bills because the cause of education is so popular now in Kentucky that it may mean political suicide to anyone who dares to oppose any bill that stands for educational progress. This was demonstrated in the house last week when the bill appropriating $600,000 to the state college and the state normal schools came up for discussion and passage. The bill gives $150,000 to each of the normal schools and $200,000 to the state college. One-third to be paid this year, one-third next year and the other third in 1910. The cheese-parers all expressed themselves as being in favor of the bill, but they urged that the amounts appropriated were too large. This argument reduced to its final absurdity would be the same as saying the legislature to meet in a tent without a store in town, weather. The c. p. s. however, were not in the majority and the bill passed by a vote of 49 to 7, most unanimously. All of which goes to show that the record-maker and alleged economist, who wants to give a mosquito-bat overcoat when a chin-chilla would hardly keep you warm, does not always succeed.

There is a bitter war on between two factions of the Kentucky Dairy-men's association, and it looks like two associations will be the result. It all comes about over the bill in the legislature providing for a rigid inspection of all cows and the killing of all those found to be infected with tuberculosis. The annual meeting of the association was held here last week and after a spirited argument over the propriety of passing the bill, the meeting split up like a political convention and one faction left the building with the avowed intention of forming a new association. Some of the dairymen say the ever heard of cows in this state has more or less tuberculosis in it and that such has been the case from time immemorial, and that if the proposed law passes, nearly every herd of dairy cows in the state will have to be slaughtered when there is no real reason for it.

Senator Burnam of Madison county has introduced a bill that is intended to reach the unlawful acts committed by the "night riders." The bill provides that where two or more persons conspire together to commit some unlawful act and do commit said act, the circuit judge, attorney general or the commonwealth's attorney may have a change of venue to another county to have the unlawful acts investigated by the grand jury of that county, and if anyone they shall be tried in that county and not in the county where the act was committed. It is claimed that this is the only method of getting a fair and impartial investigation of the acts of the "night riders" can be secured, as the grand juries and petit juries in the county where the acts were committed are said to contain members of the "night riders' association."

Every day of the session brings fresh evidence that the senatorial race and the county unit local option bill are so closely interwoven that they cannot be separated. The two candidates for United States senator have gone into print on the situation, Beckham proposing that the senatorial race be postponed till the county unit bill be disposed of and Bradley charging that Beckham's proposal is only a grand stand play. Meantime there is a persistent rumor that if the legislature fails to pass the county unit bill, Governor Willson will at once call an extra session and demand that the bill be passed. It has been rumored for several days that the governor is preparing a surprise for the legislature, and it is now claimed that the surprise will be the call of an extra session or else a message stating that unless the bill is passed an extra session will be called. All of this may, however, be but the idle talk that always comes to the end of new and exciting legislative session if some important bill fails to go through.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out all the impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from the excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or untimely heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It cleanses the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold in bottles of 50 cents, 75 cents and one-dollar size. You can get a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake but remember this name Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., are never mistaken.

You know most people either too well or not well enough to trust them—St. Louis Clinic Dispensary.

Be careful about that little cough. Get something right away; some good, reliable remedy that will move the bowels. Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently yet promptly on the bowels and allays inflammation at the same time. It is pleasant to take and especially recommended for children, as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. Sold by all druggists.

The Fighting Chance.

my eye to mutual utterance when they encountered. But now something appeared to be lacking in their rather listless halcyon—something of the usual flavor which once had sailed even a laughing alliance with plump Steward. And he seemed to be amused at the spectacle of Plank's effusive interest, and Linda Mortimer's broad smile had lapsed so long that her olive-pink cheeks were up and she relaxed her fixed features with a little shrug that was also some of a shiver. Then, looking prudently around, she encountered Steward's eyes, and during a moment's hesitation they considered one another with an increasing curiosity that slowly became tentative intelligence. And her eyes said very plainly and unambiguously to Steward: "Oh, my friend, I'll follow you to hell. Plank no longer has engaged in any of his old tricks, but he has been so thoroughly convinced that the young man had been innocently removed. He, Plank, never doubted that he was a perfectly free agent, decided to follow Steward had arrived for triumphant retirement."

CRANKY METAL.

Modes and Mystery That Are Embodied in a Piece of Steel.

A cutler company will make a hundred razors from the same piece of steel by the same process, and part of the razors will be good and part of them bad. It may be fifty of one kind or seventy-five or twenty-five—nobody knows. The maker doesn't know; the customer doesn't know. Barbers say that even the price doesn't seem to make much difference. You may get a good razor for a quarter or a bad one for $5. And the same razor will get a contrary edge today, so that you can hardly shave with it, and tomorrow, without additional sharpening, it will work like a charm.

One day will go on a bolt easily and stay there. Another day will hardly go on at all. A third may be screwed on tight and snug and yet keep coming off in spite of all that can be done. Sometimes men that work with machines have a premonition of coming disaster, as do the men that sail on the sea or thread the winding paths of the big woods. Nature is as well as pieces of mechanism seems able to communicate to man why they are in a calamitous and threatening mood. —Chicago Tribune.

Croup positively checked in 20 minutes. Dr. Shoop's 20 minute Croup Remedy acts like magic. No vomiting, nothing harsh. A simple, safe, pleasant, dependable croup syrup. 50c all dealers.

Turn About.

In a Great Western railway carriage on the way up to London a youth had disturbed and annoyed the other passengers by loud and foolish lute remarks during a great part of the journey. As they passed Hanwell Lins the asylum he remarked, "I often think how nice the asylum looks from the railway."

"Some day," growled an old gentleman, "you will probably have occasion to remark how nice the railway looks from the asylum." —London Advertiser.

Getting It All.

"What can I bring you today, sir?" "Herb, know. I need carbohydrate and protein, and I want something nitrogenous, I think."

"Yes, sir. How about an order of hash?" —Pittsburgh Post.

I. Myself.

From this hour I decree that my being be freed from all restraint and limits.

I go where I will, my own absolute and complete master.

I breathe deeply in space. The east and the west are mine.

Nine all the north and south. I am greater and better than I thought myself.

I did not know that so much boundless goodness was in me.

Whoever disowns me causes me no annoyance.

Whoever recognizes me shall be blessed and will bless me. —Walt Whitman.

Best He Could Do.

"Sir," said the late parent, "what do you mean by lying my daughter?" "Excuse me," replied the poor but otherwise honest young man, "but I desired to show my appreciation of your daughter's loveliness, and please are the only things I can afford to give her at the present stage of the game." —Detroit Tribune.

Unmanned.

Wigg—What errors these novelists make! Here the author of this book speaks of his heroine as being unmanned. Wagg—Say she was divorced. —Philadelphia Record.

A man who hopes to succeed must take himself seriously, even if he is business to banish seriousness. —Chicago Record-Herald.

A LEARNED LUNATIC.

Alexander Cruden, the Compiler of the Bible Concordance.

Alexander Cruden, the persevering and painstaking compiler of the famous Concordance to the Bible, was appointed bookkeeper to the queen of George I. by Sir Robert Walpole. The Concordance which has conferred celebrity on his name was published and dedicated to Queen Caroline in 1737. He was permitted to present a copy of it in person to her majesty, who, he said, smiled upon him and assured him she was much obliged to him. He died sixteen days afterwards, and the queen did not reap the benefit of the queen's appreciation which he had anticipated. He prepared a second volume that took twenty-four years to write and dedicated it to her grandson, George III. For this and a third edition issued in 1749 he reaped a reward of £800.

Cruden was a very eccentric character and was three placed in private lunatic asylums. He designated himself "Assessor, the 'Corrector' and the 'Corrector of Morals.' He claimed to the latter title consulting in his stopping all persons whom he met in public places on Sundays and admonishing them to go home and keep the Sabbath day holy. He was a great believer in the disintegration of tracts and it seems a great part of his means in this way.

It seems difficult to believe that this eccentric man of this sort should have his name associated with such a remarkable painstaking book as his Concordance undoubtedly is, as it must have cost an enormous amount of labor in its compilation, but it was probably the severity of his occupation that unbalanced his mind. He died at Camden street, Islington, on Nov. 1, 1770.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, droopiness, dropsy, disorder in the urine, and so on. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

J. Dyer, living in Cloverport, Ky., says: "I have kept Doan's Kidney Pills constantly in the house for over twenty years and have never found a remedy that would equal them. Three years ago my back was so lame and sore that I was scarcely able to straighten after assuming a stooped position. When I ever contracted the slightest cold I was greatly annoyed by my suffering. A few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to bring me prompt relief, and my wife has also used them with excellent results. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Fisher's drug store, and it gives me great pleasure to recommend them to other persons afflicted with kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Saved From Being a Cripple For Life.

"Almost six or seven weeks ago I became paralyzed all at once with rheumatism," writes Mrs. Louis McKee, 757 North Street, Oakland, Cal. "It struck me in the back and extended from the hip of my right leg down to my foot. The attack was so severe that I could not move in bed and was afraid that I should be a cripple for life."

About twelve years ago I received a sample bottle of your Liniment but never had occasion to use it, as I have always been well, but something told me that Sloan's Liniment would help me, so I tried it. After the second application I could get up out of bed, and in three days could walk, and now feel well and entirely free from pain.

"My friends were very much surprised at my rapid recovery and I was only glad to tell them that Sloan's Liniment was the only medicine I used."

Diamond Cut Diamond.

Once upon a time there were in Paris two papers, the Razor and the Scorpion, which were always going for each other with great ferocity. Every week people bought the Razor to read how it cut at the Scorpion and the Scorpion to learn how it stung the Razor.

A certain philanthropist felt pained to see such violence, so he invited the two editors to dine in his house. Over good fare he could make peace between them. At the appointed time one man, melancholy man presented himself and was ushered in. After an interval, as no other guest approached, the host demanded:

"May I ask, are you the editor of the Razor or Scorpion?"

"Both," said the sad eyed man.

Just a little Casewell is all that is necessary to give your baby when it is cross and peevish. Casewell contains no opiates nor harmful drugs and is highly recommended by mothers everywhere. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by all druggists.

AN OCEAN VOYAGE.

One of the Things It Teaches is the Value of System.

"I wish," said the head of a large business house, "that every man who dresses his friends and associates in the most expensive and costly way to take a trip or a succession of trips on the sea. He'd learn something; he'd have to. There's a force in example you know, and the effects of shipboard conditions would make themselves felt sooner or later. I don't mean to say that a revolution in character would follow any such experience, but with the majority of people it is safe to say that there would be some alteration for the better."

Oh, yes, I know, there are certain men and women who are born to disorder, as you might say, and who couldn't be helped by any course of treatment. These are the unfortunate of business and professional life, that's all. But for the ignorant, the thoughtless, those who never have appreciated any such experience, but with the majority of people it is safe to say that there would be some alteration for the better. It is funny that when you hear so much about the restfulness of ocean travel, and so few realize that the regularity of the life, its system, its evident adaptation of means to ends, constitutes such a large factor in bringing about this result. And the same principle can be applied on shore." —New York Press.

Get DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve—it is healing, soothing and cooling. It is good for piles. Sold by all druggists.

TWICKENHAM.

Famous as the Abode of Many English Literary Giants.

The place in which the tower of Knott's literature withstood or later turned his steps in Twickenham. No other small town can boast of having been the residence and beloved abode of so many famous literary lights. With it are associated the immortal names of Pope, Horace Walpole, Swift, Gay, Lady Wootton, Montagu, Gifford, Boswell, Johnson, Tennyson and Dickens. Surely this is enough to make any place doubly immortal! Twickenham was well nicknamed by Horace Walpole the Rhine, or Tivoli of England, for it has truly been in London what Belas was to ancient Rome. Indeed, in a far higher degree. The big red brick house in Twickenham where Alfred Tennyson lived for so many years of his earlier married life was the one in which many of his earlier poems were written. That house, the son of Lord Tennyson, was born, and there the author of "Idylls" entertained many of his literary friends and acquaintances. That house should surely be sacred to all lovers of English literature, which saw the dawn of "In Memoriam," which witnessed those delightful gatherings around the Tennyson, Hallam and kindred spirits within its walls. It is today called "Tennyson House." —Westminster Gazette.

Madrid and Its Climate.

Along the Mediterranean shore Spain presents a narrow ribbon of fertile, delightful country. The region is often called "the garden of Spain."

It is a great contrast to pass from these tropical shores to the wild swept plateau of Interior Spain. The level country enclosed by the Guadarrama and the Cantabrian mountains forms in the west an extensive wheat growing region. To the east as the rainfall decreases pastures encroach upon arable culture. In New Castle, on the south of the Guadarrama and in the south of Spain, the political capital has been placed. The level country in which it has been dropped, as if by accident, is for the most part a warm plain, except in winter by the piercing winds from the naked mountains of the north, sweltering in summer under the effect of the sun's rays on bare rocks and soil.

The climate of Madrid has been tersely described by its inhabitants as "three months of winter and nine of hell." Remember that when the stomach nerves fail or weaken, dyspepsia or indigestion must necessarily follow. But strength in these weak inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and then see how quickly health will again return. Weak heart and kidney nerves can also be strengthened with the Restorative where heart palpitation or kidney weakness is found. Don't drug the stomach nor stimulate the heart or kidneys. That is wrong. Go to the cause of the ailments. Strengthen these weak inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and get well. A simple, single tablet will surely tell. All dealers.

Her Portrait.

Miss Ethelwyn painted this portrait of myself some weeks ago and—'Oh! I like looking at the picture of a young girl—What a good memory you have!' —Transatlantic Times.

A Slip.

"What shall I play?" asked the organist at a church social. "What sort of a hand have you got?" was the unexpected reply. —London Telegraph.

"It's not the many oaths that make the truth—Shakespeare."

Funny Thing About Jersey.

The policeman who usually guards the Broadway and Day street corner, but who is now off on sick leave as a result of trying to stop a runaway horse, was in a remiss mood. "All sorts of people pass the corner," he said. "One day I missed a German porter who was in the habit of stopping to speak to me every day. A few days later he reappeared, and I asked him—'here he had been.' " "Over in Jersey," he replied. "What part of Jersey?" I asked. "I don't know," replied the German. "Funny thing 'bout them towns over in Jersey. They all have different names." —New York Globe.

Unequaled as a Cure for Croup.

"Besides being an excellent remedy for colds and throat troubles, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is unequalled as a cure for croup," says Henry Wilson, of Wayatawton, Ind. When given as soon as the croupy cough appears, this remedy will prevent the attack. It is used successfully in many thousands of homes. For sale by Sevens Drug Co.

Disqualified.

"I should like to succeed, your lordship," said a man who had been summoned on a jury.

"What for?"

"I owe a man $5, and I want to hunt him up and pay it."

"Do you mean to tell this court you would hunt up a man to pay a bill in default of waiting for him to hunt you up?"

"Yes, your lordship."

"You are excused. I don't want any more of your kind. I will file like that." —London Chronicle.

$100 paid by Dr. Shoop for any recent case of Croup or whooping Cough that a 25 cent box of Preventives will cure. How is this for an offer? The Doctor's supreme confidence in these little Candy Cough Cures—Preventives—is certainly complete. It's $100, against 25 cents—pretty big odds. And Preventives, remember, contain no quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh or sickening. Preventives will never appear if early colds were always broken. Safe and sure for feverish children. 45 Preventives 25c. All dealers.

CUSTER.

Kit Alexander has bronchial pneumonia.

Custer has three telephone systems. We can talk anywhere we please now. A. B. Suter has taken his place in the bank again, and is almost as well as ever.

Hester Lynch, of near town, is very low with asthma. It has now attacked the lungs.

Jim Clark is convalescing from a spell of pneumonia. His wife has been sick also but is some better.

Jess Suter, who has been with his brother the past four weeks, returned to his home at Owen on Thursday.

Dr. Meader has been kept very busy riding for the past six weeks. Pneumonia has been the principle trouble.

Big preparations have been made by most of the farmers for a large acreage of tobacco. Burley will be first choice.

Noah Bruer has returned from a visit to Mattoon, Ill., where he went to make a short visit to his married brother and sister.

Mrs. Alfred Taylor is still on the sick list. She had a very hard hemorrhage on Monday. At this writing she can sit up some.

News came by telephone on Friday that Mrs. Dora Trent, nee Miss Ella Kasey, was not expected to live through the day. Mrs. Trent is living on her farm a few miles out from Big Spring. Her disease is the dread consumption.

Mrs. H. B. Head, of Rosetta, came in Tuesday to spend the day with the Taylors. She was accompanied by her nephew, Hal Head.

Miss Edna Dewell arrived in Custer from Big Spring on Friday to remain with her sister, Mrs. John Cook for a visit of several days.

Miss Pearl Rhodus, who was thrown from her horse some four weeks ago, is now able to come out in town, but is yet suffering from the fall.

Irvin Lyon is no better. He spent all of the fall and nearly all of the winter out West thinking the climate would benefit him. He returned home unimproved.

We congratulate our kinsman, Wallace, over his victory in winning the oratorical contest medal. His grandmother once gave the winning motto, "Never try, never win."

We imagine Wallace has some of the dear old grandmother's determination, and that whatever he goes after he gets.

Guy Brown and his father have arrived home from California. Guy has very bad health, and went to California thinking the mountain climate would give him relief, but word came to the father and mother to come and get their dear boy. He was no better and longed to be at home with the dear ones. They have been at home now two weeks.

MAKE THIS UP AT YOUR HOME

Prepare It At Home By Shaking
Ingredients Well In A Bottle.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, as formulated by a noted authority, who claims that he has found a positive remedy to cure almost any case of backache or sciatica, or bladder derangement, in the following simple prescription, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sassafras, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bed time.

A well-known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often in rheumatic affections with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the food acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

"SPECIAL NOTIFICATION"

A Tremendous Sacrifice Sale

THE PUBLIC BENEFITS

THE public of Louisville and the entire states of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana will benefit greatly by Jas. Greene's big purchase of a number of manufacturers surplus furniture and carpet stocks, $185,000 in all, consisting of furniture, of every description, carpets, rugs, curtains, stoves and household goods. Jas. Greene, of Louisville, Kentucky, secured seven carloads of manufacturers surplus stocks at an unheard of low figure ON ACCOUNT OF THE RECENT CONDITION OF THE MONEY MARKET, THE MANUFACTURERS HAD TO SELL and Jas. Greene obtained the stocks at practically his own price. Jas. Greene says that he proposes to give the people of LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, OHIO and INDIANA, the benefit of this great purchase of manufacturers surplus stocks, by giving the people the most stupendous and most remarkable ten day sale on furniture, carpets, rugs, curtains, household goods, etc., that was ever given in the State of Kentucky. The entire stocks, direct from the manufacturers will be sold at such ridiculously low prices that the public will be amazed. This ten day sale will be without question of a doubt the biggest bargain feast and sale of furniture that was ever given in the South at any time before, or that will ever occur here again. Commercial circles will be astounded at the tremendous bargains offered. It will be a bargain earthquake of low prices on good quality furniture, carpets, etc., that will arouse the people of Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana, and vicinity from center to circumference. It took great nerve and a big outlay of ready cash to buy this large surplus of manufacturers' stocks for a city the size of Louisville, for, as a rule, these great snaps are usually gobbled up by the largest stores in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, but Jas. Greene says there is nothing too good for the people of Kentucky and vicinity and he proposes to give the public a stupendous ten day sale the above stocks that will be the talk of the entire state and surrounding country for the next ten years to come. It will be a premier effort in value-giving on furniture such as the public will long remember, as never heretofore have our people been able to buy furniture, of every description, carpets, rugs and house furnishings at less than actual wholesale cost of manufacturers.

The Jas. Greene Furniture Building is now closed in order to get these great surplus stocks in readiness for the opening day's sale, and the store will not be open for business until the opening day's sale, which will be WEDNESDAY MORNING, AT 8:30 A. M., MARCH 11TH. This is no ordinary furniture sale, but one in fact, that seldom occurs in any community. Jas. Greene, of Louisville, has certainly prepared for immense crowds of people, having already engaged hundreds of extra salespeople in order to be able to wait upon the large crowds attending the sale during this stupendous ten days' furniture sacrifice. The people of Louisville, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana and vicinity have never heretofore had an opportunity of attending such a sacrifice sale as Greene's Manufacturers Outlet Furniture Sale will afford the public. It is an opportunity which comes to you about once in a lifetime. Let all who possibly can attend this most wonderful bargain giving event to replenish your homes. Remember the sale will last for ten days only. MAIL ORDERS WILL BE FILLED same day as received, and FREIGHT WILL BE PAID ON ANY PURCHASE TO ANY PART OF THE STATE OF KENTUCKY. This great sale positively opens WEDNESDAY morning MARCH 11th, at 8:30 A. M. Drop everything—make your arrangements to be in LOUISVILLE, KY., if possible, on the opening day. Be sure you find the right place. Look for the big green and white signs, JAMES GREENE'S MANUFACTURERS' OUTLET FURNITURE SALE, 425-427-429 East Market St., Louisville, Ky. We would advise early morning selections as much as possible in order to facilitate the proper handling of the immense crowds of people who will attend this gigantic furniture sale, which opens March 11th, WEDNESDAY MORNING AT 8:30 A. M. Be here on one of the ten sale days, and secure your share of the many bargains offered. You can not afford to miss this sale at Jas. Greene's, at Louisville, Ky. REMEMBER THE OPENING DATE, and if you value money, then prepare accordingly, and you will save many dollars on furniture, carpets, rugs, curtains and your household needs. Sale only lasts ten days, beginning Wednesday morning, March 11th, at 8:30 A. M., ending Saturday night, March 21st. If you can not come, send your order by mail.
